Parental Power Summit: Empowering Maryland Parents to Protect Their Rights and Their Children

[Baltimore, Maryland - EVENT: June 3, 2024] - Parental Power Summit, a non-partisan event for parents by parents, dedicated to empowering parents and protecting parental authority, is pleased to announce its upcoming event in Towson, Maryland. The summit, scheduled for June 3rd, 6:30-8:30pm at the Towson Sheraton, aims to educate and empower Maryland parents on their rights and resources available in raising their children.

In today's rapidly changing world, parental rights are under threat like never before. From navigating education systems to ensuring children's privacy online, parents face numerous challenges in protecting their rights and their children's well-being. The Parental Power Summit seeks to address these challenges head-on by providing valuable insights, resources, and support to parents across Maryland.

The summit will feature a diverse lineup of speakers, including experts in education, healthcare, law, and advocacy. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn practical strategies for navigating legal and social challenges, advocating for their rights, and fostering resilient families and communities.

"We believe that every parent has the right to raise their children in a safe, supportive, and nurturing environment," said Darren Badillo, a fellow parent participating as MC at the Parental Power Summit. "Our event is designed to empower Maryland parents with the knowledge, resources, and support they need to protect their rights and their children's future."

In addition to informative talks and panel discussions, the summit will include networking opportunities, group Q&A sessions, and a chance to connect with like-minded parents and advocates. Attendees are encouraged to RSVP online at www.parentalpowersummit.com to secure their spot and join the movement to protect parental authority.

"We invite all Maryland parents, caregivers, educators, and community members to join us for this important event," added Darren "Together, we can make a difference and ensure a brighter future for our children."
